10. Proof of Claim. In order to be eligible to receive a distribution from the Net Settlement Fund, in the event the Settlement is effected in accordance with the Stipulation, each claimant must take the following actions and be subject to the following conditions:

Case

(a) The claimant must submit a properly executed Proof of Claim, substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit 2, to the Claims Administrator, at the address indicated in the Notice, postmarked or received no later than one hundred twenty (120) calendar days after the Notice Date. Each Proof of Claim shall be deemed to have been submitted when postmarked (if properly addressed and mailed by first-class or overnight mail, postage prepaid) as long as the Proof of Claim is actually received before the motion for an order of the Court approving distribution of the Net Settlement Fund. Any Proof of Claim submitted in any other manner shall be deemed to have been submitted when it was actually received at the address designated in the Notice. Any Class Member who does not timely submit a Proof of Claim within the time provided for shall be barred from sharing in the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, but shall remain bound by all determinations and judgments in this Action concerning the Settlement, as provided by paragraph 15 of this Order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Class Counsel may, at its discretion, accept for processing late Proofs of Claim provided such acceptance does not delay the distribution of the Net Settlement Fund to the Class.

(b) The Proof of Claim submitted by each claimant must satisfy the following conditions, unless otherwise allowed by the Stipulation: (i) it must be properly completed, signed, and submitted in a timely manner in accordance with the preceding subparagraph; (ii) it must be accompanied by adequate supporting documentation for the transactions reported in it, in the form of broker confirmation slips, broker account statements, an authorized statement from the broker containing the transactional information found in a broker confirmation slip, or other documentation that is deemed adequate by the Claims Administrator or Class Counsel; (iii) if the person executing the Proof of Claim is acting in a representative capacity, a certification of his or her current authority to act on behalf of the claimant must be included in the Proof of Claim; and (iv) the Proof of Claim must be complete and contain no material deletions or modifications of any of the printed matter contained in it and must be signed under penalty of perjury.

(c) As part of the Proof of Claim, each claimant shall submit to the jurisdiction of the Court with respect to the claim submitted.

11. Appearance. Any Class Member may enter an appearance in this Action, at his, her, or its own expense, individually or through counsel of his, her, or its own choice. If any Class Member does not enter an appearance, he, she, or it will be represented by Class Counsel.

12. Exclusion from the Class. Class Members shall be bound by all orders, determinations, and judgments in this Action, whether favorable or unfavorable, unless they request exclusion from the Class in a timely and proper manner, as provided below. A putative Class Member wishing to request exclusion from the Class must mail the request in written form by first-class mail to the address designated in the Notice for exclusion requests, such that it is received no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days before the Settlement Hearing. The request for exclusion must state the name, address, and telephone number of the Person seeking exclusion and, in the case of entities, the name and address of the appropriate contact person for the entity; must state that the Person requests to be “excluded from the Class in In re KBR, Inc. Securities Litigation, Case No. 14-cv-01287-LHR (S.D. Tex.)” and must be signed by the Person seeking exclusion. Persons requesting exclusion must also state the following information requested in the Notice: the number of shares of KBR common stock purchased, acquired, and/or sold during the Class Period, as well as the dates, number of shares, and prices of each such purchase, acquisition, or sale. The request for exclusion shall not be effective unless it provides the required information and is made within the time stated above, or the exclusion is otherwise accepted by the Court.

13. Putative Class Members whose requests for exclusion from the Class are allowed by the Court shall not be eligible to receive any payment from the Net Settlement Fund.

14. Objections. Any Class Member who does not request exclusion from the Class may object to the proposed Settlement, the proposed Plan of Allocation, and/or Class Counsel's application for attorneys' fees and expenses. The Court will consider a Class Member's objection only if the Class Member has served by hand or by mail his, her or its written objection and supporting papers, such that they are received no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days before the Settlement Hearing, upon Class Counsel: Louis Gottlieb, Labaton Sucharow LLP, 140 Broadway, New York, NY 10005; John Rizio-Hamilton, Bernstein Litowitz Berger & Grossmann LLP, 1251 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10020; and Defendants' Counsel: Michael C. Holmes, Vinson & Elkins LLP, 1001 Fannin Street, Suite 2500, Houston, TX 77002, and has filed the objection and supporting papers with the Clerk of the Court, United States District Court for the Southern District of Texas, United States Courthouse, 515 Rusk Street, Houston, Texas 77002 no later than twenty-one (21) calendar days before the Settlement Hearing. Any Class Member who does not make his, her, or its objection in the manner provided for in this Order and in the Notice shall be deemed to have waived the objection and shall forever be foreclosed from making any objection to any aspect of the Settlement, to the Plan of Allocation, or to the request for attorneys' fees and expenses, but shall otherwise be bound by the Judgment to be entered and the releases to be given. Class Members submitting written objections are not required to attend the Settlement Hearing, but any Class Member wishing to be heard orally in opposition to the approval of the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or the application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses must file a written objection and indicate in the written objection their intention to appear at the hearing. Persons who intend to object to the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, and/or the application for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses and desire to present evidence at the Settlement Hearing must include in their written objections the identity of any witnesses they may call to testify and exhibits they intend to introduce into evidence at the Settlement Hearing. Class Members do not need to appear at the hearing or take any other action to indicate their approval.

15. Stay. Until otherwise ordered by the Court, the Court stays all proceedings in the Action other than proceedings necessary to carry out or enforce the terms and conditions of the Stipulation. Pending final determination of whether the Settlement should be approved, Class Representatives and all Class Members shall not institute, commence, or prosecute any action which asserts Released Plaintiffs' Claims against the Released Defendant Parties.

16. Supporting Papers. All papers in support of the Settlement, Plan of Allocation, and Class Counsel's request for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses shall be filed with the Court and served no later than thirty-five (35) calendar days before the date set in this Order for the Settlement Hearing. If reply papers are necessary, they must be filed with the Court and served no later than seven (7) calendar days before the Settlement Hearing.

17. Settlement Fund. All funds held in escrow shall be deemed and considered to be in custodia legis of the Court, and shall remain subject to the jurisdiction of the Court until the funds are disbursed pursuant to the Stipulation and/or further order of the Court.

18. Plan of Allocation. Neither Defendants nor their counsel have any responsibility for the Plan of Allocation or any application for attorneys' fees or expenses submitted by Class

Counsel or Class Representatives, and these matters shall be considered separately from the fairness, reasonableness and adequacy of the Settlement.

19. Termination. If the Settlement is terminated or the Effective Date of the Settlement otherwise fails to occur, then the Stipulation, including any amendment(s) to it, except as expressly provided in the Stipulation, and this Order shall be null and void, of no further force or effect, and without prejudice to any Party, and may not be introduced as evidence or used in any actions or proceedings by any person or entity against the Parties, and the Parties shall be deemed to have reverted to their respective litigation positions in the Action immediately prior to December 15, 2016.

20. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction over the Action to consider all further matters arising out of or connected with the Settlement.
